Now You Know

“Then God said: Let us make human beings in our image, after our likeness. Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the tame animals, all the wild animals, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth. God created mankind in his image; in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them” (Genesis 1:26-27).

“The Lord God said: It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suited to him. So the Lord God formed out of the ground all the wild animals and all the birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each living creature was then its name. The man gave names to all the tame animals, all the birds of the air, and all the wild animals; but none proved to be a helper suited to the man.

“So the Lord God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The Lord God then built the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman. When he brought her to the man, the man said: ‘This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called ‘woman,’ for out of man this one has been taken.’ That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body” (Genesis 2:18-24).

These passages and Jesus’ quoting them in Matthew 19 and Mark 10 are the reasons why the Church is opposed to gay “marriage”. Established by God, true marriage can only be between one man and one woman and lasts until death. If you are ever asked why we’re so narrow minded and haven’t “got with the times,” quote Genesis and then recite “As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end”. For a glimpse into Pope St. John Paul II’s Theology of the Body, read Called to Love by Carl A. Anderson.

"O my God, teach me to be generous, to serve you as you deserve to be served, to give without counting the cost, to fight without fear of being wounded, to work without seeking rest, and to spend myself without expecting any reward, but the knowledge that I am doing your holy will. Amen." — St. Ignatius of Loyola
