Prayer of Spiritual Communion for Those Who Cannot Attend Mass

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

* This is the first performance of the 2020-2021 Music & Liturgy at the Athenaeum season. Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, the concert will be available to the public online only. They will broadcast the performance live via www.athenaeum.edu. Members of the Athenaeum Chorale, including some of the finest professional singers from the Cincinnati area, will lead the psalms, canticles and hymns of Sunday Vespers, and perform a set of motets honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary.

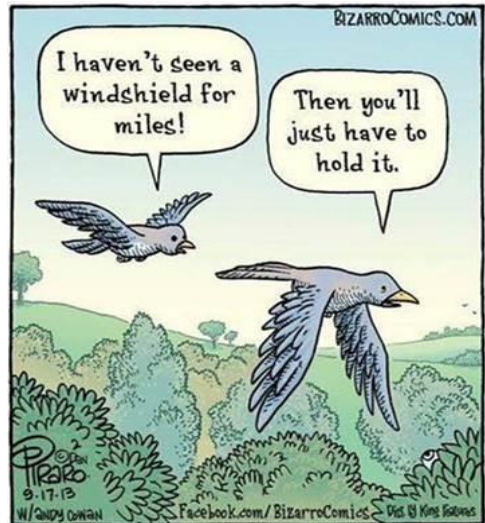

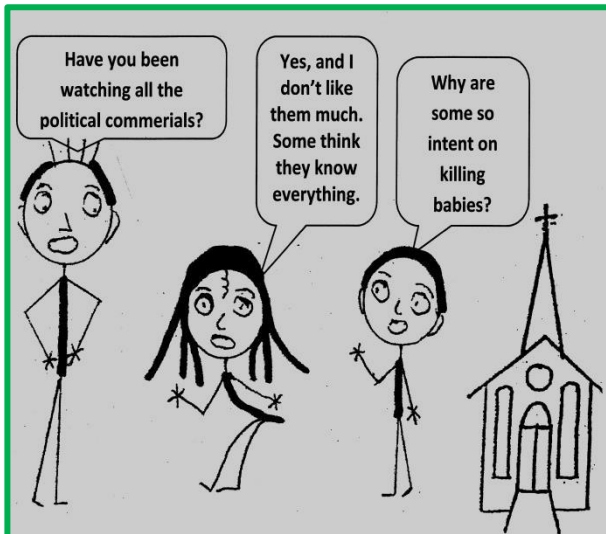

You wanted to know, so we looked it up

The rosary has roots in several early Christian prayer traditions. They share similar formats to the rosary with repetitive structures and prayers. Later, in 1214, it is widely believed, St. Dominic had a vision of Mary. She is said to have presented him with the rosary, both the beads and the prayers to be prayed. Dominic had a tremendous devotion to Mary and the rosary, which he promoted wherever he traveled to preach. He encouraged Catholics to gather in small groups to pray together what was an early form of the rosary together. These were quite possibly the first expressions of the prayer groups and small group communities that are still having a powerful impact today.

The Hail Mary prayer itself has an interesting history; it came together slowly. It took more than a thousand years. The earliest version simply added Mary's name to the message delivered by the angel Gabriel to Mary: "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee" (Luke 1:28). Around 1050 AD, the words Elizabeth used to greet Mary during the Visitation were added: "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb" (Luke 1:42). In 1261, Pope Urban IV added the name of Jesus to the end of Elizabeth's words. St. Peter Canisius published the Hail Mary in his 1555 Catechism with almost the entire final petition: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners" and eleven years later was completed with the final petition "now and at the hour of our death. Amen." This final version was given official approval in 1568.

Catholics were not the first to pray with beads. And while the exact origin of prayer beads is unknown, men and woman of many faiths and cultures (Hindus, Greeks, Buddhists, and more) use beads to pray. In fact, the word bead in English is actually derived from an Old English word that means prayer. (Many thanks to Matthew Kelly at <https://dynamiccatholic.com/rosary/history-of-the-rosary>)
