Prayer of Spiritual Communion for Those Who Cannot Attend Mass

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

"Know this: just as the wood of the ark saved the just from drowning, so too, by the mystery of His wooden Cross, does Christ, the Church's God and King, save us from drowning in the sea of this world. In the symbol of a thing made of wood He gave human beings a foreshadowing of both the judgment to come and the salvation of the just." — St. Augustine

Our Pope Gets Bad Press

You've probably noticed that the mainstream media gets a lot of news wrong. Usually, it is not so much that it's wrong but that they've applied their own liberal interpretation to events, behaviors, and the words of people they do not favor. Among the organizations the media don't like is the Catholic Church.

Recently, many of the major news outlets reported that Pope Francis approved of gay marriage and homosexuality. That opinion is patently false. He has spoken out many times against same-sex unions and homosexuality. The Church's teaching about marriage being between one man and one woman has remained unchanged during the two-thousand years of its existence. Saint Pope John Paul II was very clear about that in his book Man and Woman He Created Them: A Theology of the Body.

What the pope did say was that no one should be excluded from society, our Church family, or our love. They should not, he said, "be made to feel miserable." Jesus commanded us to love our neighbors – all of our neighbors.

Loving all persons does not mean that we must love all their behaviors. We are all evangelists and it is our duty to live and preach God's commandments. Often, "tolerance" is not good. Our society and, unfortunately, many of us, have tolerated immoral behavior to the extent that it has become far too commonplace. Still we must recognize the dignity of all humans.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother Mary, we, your children of every nation, turn to you in this pandemic. Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great. Grant that we might deposit them at your feet, take refuge in your Immaculate Heart, and obtain peace, healing, rescue, And timely help in all our needs. You are our Mother. Pray for us to your Son. Amen.

"The goodness of God is the highest object of prayer, and it reaches down to our lowest need. It quickens our soul and gives it life, and makes it grow in grace and virtue."
— St. Julian of Norwich

Catholic Relief Services collection is next weekend.

For more than 75 years, CRS has been providing expertise and compassion to the very poorest of our brothers and sisters in more than 100 countries. And it's because of you. When you give, you help fill the bellies of young children so they can study hard in school. You help prevent trafficking and provide welcome kits for survivors. Your donations help mothers and babies around the world receive nutritional care and health exams. Refugees find safety and receive emergency assistance and trauma counseling. Farmers learn innovative ways to plant and grow crops despite drought or disease. And women find dignity in opportunities for savings and training.

"When you have free moments, go faithfully to prayer. The good God is waiting for you there."
— St. Julie Billiart
