COVID 19 ALERT AND CLARIFICATION

Archbishop Dennis Schnurr and all the Ohio Bishops have reinstated the obligation to attend Sunday Mass beginning with the anticipatory Mass on Saturday June 5th.

After this Holy Trinity Mass, face coverings are only required for the non-vaccinated. Of course, they are optional and you certainly may wear them if you will be more comfortable.

Why science teachers should not be given playground duty.

This is a non-political post.
You're welcome.

The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons, the “consubstantial Trinity.” The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: “The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e., by nature one God.” In the words of the Fourth Lateran Council (1215): “Each of the persons is that supreme reality, viz., the divine substance, essence or nature” (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC] # 253).

The divine persons are really distinct from one another. “God is one but not solitary.” “Father,” “Son,” “Holy Spirit” are not simply names designating modalities of the divine being, for they are really distinct from one another: “He is not the Father who is the Son, nor is the Son he who is the Father, nor is the Holy Spirit he who is the Father or the Son.” They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: “It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds.” The divine Unity is Triune (CCC# 254).

The divine persons are relative to one another. Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another: “In the relational names of the persons the Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three persons in view of their relations, we believe in one nature or substance.” Indeed “everything (in them) is one where there is no opposition of relationship.” “Because of that unity the Father is wholly in the Son and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Son is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Son” (CCC # 255).

In other words, there is only ONE God and He consists of the three persons Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – all together in the one God.

The City of Cincinnati is proud to announce a new partnership with the Community Action Agency (CAA) to assist households who have fallen behind on rent and utility bills due to the COVID-19 pandemic. CAA's Home Relief Fund is now available to assist families with bills ranging from rent, mortgage, and utilities including water, sewage, stormwater, and trash removal. Greater Cincinnati Water Works, Metropolitan Sewer District, and Stormwater Management Utility bills are all eligible to be paid with this funding source. For eligibility, income guidelines, and qualifications, residents are encouraged to call 513-569-1840.

"The greatest suffering of the souls in purgatory, it seems to me, is the awareness that something in them displeases God, that they have deliberately gone against His great goodness. I can also see that the divine essence is so pure and light-filled—much more than we can imagine—that the soul that has but the slightest imperfection would rather throw itself into a thousand hells than appear thus before the divine presence." — St. Catherine of Genoa

All of us here at St. Jerome Church want to express our appreciation to Barb Blasch for her many years of service at the organ during our Sunday Morning Masses.

We ask God to help her always in whatever she does in the future. We trust that she will be willing to help at St. Jerome's for weddings, funerals, or other special occasions. May God bless you, Barb
