"If we but paused for a moment to consider attentively what takes place in this Sacrament of the Eucharist, I am sure that the thought of Christ's love for us would transform the coldness of our hearts into a fire of love and gratitude." — St. Angela of Foligno

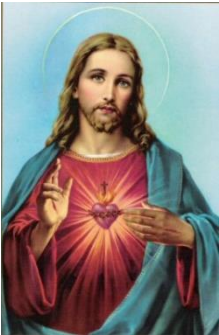

MY BOSS ARRIVED AT WORK IN A BRAND-NEW LAMBORGHINI. I SAID, "WOW, THAT'S AN AMAZING CAR!"

HE REPLIED,

"IF YOU WORK HARD, PUT ALL YOUR HOURS IN, AND STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE, I'LL GET ANOTHER ONE NEXT YEAR."

I tried donating blood today...NEVER AGAIN!!!
Too many stupid questions. Who's blood is it? Where did you get it from? Why is it in a bucket?

"The prayer of the Church venerates and honors the Heart of Jesus . . . which, out of love for men, he allowed to be pierced by our sins." Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is of great antiquity in the Church. It was St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, however, who made this devotion widespread. In 1675, within the octave of the feast of Corpus Christi, our Lord appeared to her and said:

"Behold this heart which, notwithstanding the burning love for men with which it is consumed and exhausted, meets with no other return from most Christians than sacrilege, contempt, indifference and ingratitude, even in the sacrament of my love [the Eucharist]. But what pierces my heart most deeply is that I am subjected to these insults by persons especially consecrated to my service."

To those who show him love and who make reparation for sins, however, our Lord made a great pledge: "I promise you in the unfathomable mercy of my heart that my omnipotent love will procure the grace of final penitence for all those who receive communion on nine successive first Fridays of the month; they will not die in my disfavor, or without having received the sacraments, since my divine heart will be their sure refuge in the last moments of their life."

To gain this grace, we must: Receive holy Communion on nine consecutive first Fridays; have the intention of honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of reaching final perseverance; and offer each holy Communion as an act of atonement for offenses against the Blessed Sacrament.

"To one who has faith, no explanation is necessary. To one without faith, no explanation is possible." — St. Thomas Aquinas

The bicentennial anniversary of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati was Saturday, June 19. In celebration, Archbishop Schnurr commissioned two books about the Church in Cincinnati. Examples are on the table in back of the church along with a sign-up sheet for you to order your own copy. The beautiful picture book is $30 and the smaller history book is $15. You'll be charged when the books are delivered in September.

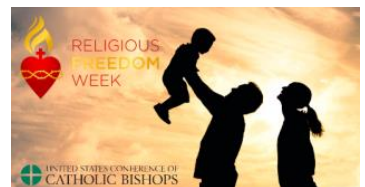

Exposition of the Holy Eucharist: "Our own belief is that the renovation of the world will be brought about only by the Holy Eucharist" - Pope Leo XIII. Consider bringing the Risen Lord into the rest of your year by visiting Him in the Eucharistic Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament at Guardian Angels Church starting at 3 pm each Thursday.

Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, in cooperation with the Alzheimer's Association of Cincinnati hosts a support group for the caregivers of Alzheimer's patients. They meet every third Wednesday from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Visit www.alz.org for more information.

"I think all Christians would agree with me if I said that though Christianity seems at first to be all about morality, all about duties and rules and guilt and virtue, yet it leads you on, out of all that, into something beyond. One has a glimpse of a country where they do not talk of those things . . . Every one there is filled full with what we should call goodness as a mirror is filled with light." — C.S. Lewis

This Tuesday, June 29, will mark the end of Religious Freedom Week. As we are sure that you know well the pressure the Church has suffered at the hands of governments who wish to force her into actions that are contrary to God's law. Recently, the Supreme Court ruled that Philadelphia could not force a Catholic adoption agency to place children in homosexual homes. We rejoice in that particular outcome but we know that it is not the end of the attacks. Please pray that further challenges will not be successful.

"Faith is a habit of the mind whereby eternal life is begun in us, making the intellect assent to what is non-apparent."
— St. Thomas Aquinas
