*The Knights of Columbus solicit donations from Cincinnati parishes every year to provide funds for their annual "Measure Up" Campaign to assist people with developmental disabilities. This fundraising effort raises approximately $425,000 for statewide and local caring agencies that sponsor a variety of training and support programs. Of the money collected, 80% is returned to the local councils for donating to their local agencies. The remaining 20% is used for statewide programs.

We will be studying the Gospel According to John using the materials written by Dr. Allen Hunt, published and distributed by Matthew Kelly's Dynamic Catholic Institute. Entitled The Turning Point, this study is not so much of an in depth exegesis of the text as much as it is an encounter with Jesus as experienced by characters and events described by John.

News Release from the Archdiocese

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am writing to share with you the remarks of Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, regarding the allegations against Archbishop Theodore McCarrick and the steps that the bishops will be taking as a result.

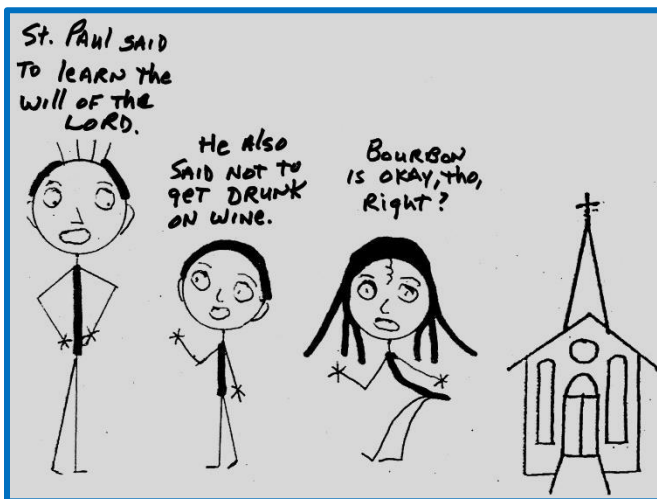

Catholics everywhere, including myself, are angered and saddened at these tragic revelations. From the depths of my heart, I express great sorrow for the pain that any victims of Archbishop McCarrick have endured. Let us all pray for their healing and peace. At the same time, I am grateful to those who have courageously stepped forward to bring these evil events to light.

I would like to take this opportunity to emphasize the Archdiocese of Cincinnati's ongoing commitment to the protection of all people, children and adults, involved in any of our various offices, parishes, schools, or other ministries. Since 1993, we have embraced and promulgated the Decree on Child Protection, which now also covers vulnerable adults, including: Complete background checks on all clerics, employees and volunteers; Ongoing required training on recognizing signs of abuse via Virtus; Procedures for reporting suspected abuse; and Immediately reporting all allegations of abuse to the appropriate civil authorities.

Please join me in maintaining vigilance regarding the safety and protection of all people. If you see something, say something. Please report any suspected abuse on the part of any agent of the Archdiocese to the appropriate civil authorities, as well as to the Coordinator of Ministry to Survivors of Abuse in the Archdiocese at 513-263-6623 or 1-800-686-2724, ext. 6623.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, patroness of the Catholic Church in the United States, continue to intercede for us. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and protect us.

Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr
Archbishop of Cincinnati

Do you want to know Christ more personally?

Listen to dynamic teachings to help you experience Christ personally and the gifts of the Holy Spirit. This seminar will take place on 5 consecutive Wed. evenings from 7 – 9 pm at St. Ignatius Parish in Hilvert Center, 5222 North Bend Rd., Cincinnati, Ohio 45247. For more info or to register call Mary Ann at 513-378-4431 or Lighthouse Renewal Center at 513-471-5483. Visit our website at www.LRC1.org or on Facebook at www.facebook/lrc1.org

"Oh, how painful it is to Me that souls so seldom unite themselves to Me in Holy Communion. I wait for souls, and they are indifferent toward Me. I love them tenderly and sincerely, and they distrust Me. I want to lavish My graces on them, and they do not want to accept them. They treat Me as a dead object, whereas My Heart is full of love and mercy. In order that you may know at least some of My pain, imagine the most tender of mothers who has great love for her children, while those children spurn her love. Consider her pain. No one is in a position to console her. This is but a pale image and likeness of My love." — Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska

Presentation Ministries at Our Lady of Guadalupe Discipleship Center and Bible College presents two separate retreats: September 14 – 16, "The Consolation of the Holy Spirit: Strength in the Challenge of Widowhood"; and "Healing the Broken Hearted: Retreat for the Divorced and Separated." The Discipleship Center is at 5701 Lawshe Road, Peebles. Guest rooms are available, meals are provided, and there are beautiful trails to follow. There is no charge but a free will offering will be taken up. For more information and to Pre-Register go to www.presentationministries.com and click on Retreats or call 513 373 2397.
